

Mariellen Malloy Jewers is associate for the social policy program at the Inter-American Dialogue. She served as an Americorps* VISTA in Massachusetts from July 2002- July 2003. In Peace Corps, her major project was facilitating a micro-credit program for women living in the barrios surrounding Santiago including Cristo Rey and CECARA (where she lived) as well as Arroyo Hondo and Las Flores. She received her B.A. from the University of Massachusetts Amherst, and an M.A. in international affairs from Columbia University.